

2011
Connecticut Envirothon Oral Presentation Scoring Form
Salt Water Estuaries

Judge ID	Session #	Team #	Score
Part One	Presentation (70 points)		Circle Score
1	The team described the Long Island Sound Estuary and its ecological and economic importance to Connecticut.		6	8	10	12	14
2	The team explained the function of a healthy estuary, Hypoxia and the problems created by Hypoxia.		6	8	10	12	14
3	The team explained their town's watershed location and relationship to Long Island Sound and briefly identified the main sources of Nitrogen runoff from their town.		6	8	10	12	14
4	The team recommended the best practices to reduce Nitrogen runoff from their town, based on their first choice of Land Use Category.		6	8	10	12	14
5	The team recommended the best practices to reduce Nitrogen runoff from their town, based on their second choice of Land Use Category.		6	8	10	12	14
Part One Subtotal:

Part Two	Quality of the Presentation (15 points)
6	The required Visual Aids used to enhance the presentation were clear, attractive and effective.	2	4	6	8	10
7	The presentation was well organized with a clear introduction and a strong conclusion. Presentation was enhanced by effective public speaking skills.	1	2	3	4	5
Part Two Subtotal :
Part Three	Required Elements (15 points)
8	Add up to five points for team member participation in presentation (Team members get one point each for significant oral participation.)	1	2	3	4	5
9	Question and Answer Portion: Answers were clear, logical and concise with all team members participating.	2	4	6	8	10
Part Three Subtotal :
Part One Score: 70 possible points
Part Two Score: 15 possible points
Part Three Score: 15 possible points
TOTAL SCORE out of possible 100 points						